(Homiletics)

If any little word of mine
Can make a life the brighter,
If any little song of mine
Can make a heart the lighter
God help me speak that little word,
Or do my bit of singing and drop them down in some lendly vale
and set the echoes ringing.

C. A. Gerber 440 W. Branning ave.

"With peaceful mind thy path
of duty run:
God nothing does, nor suffers
to be done,
But what thou would'st
thyself, could thou but see
The end of all events as well as he."

"No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn.
This is heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord." Isa. 54:17.

How many are the lost that I have left?
How many are the chances I've talked to you?
I wonder?
Have I given my best to Jesus
When He has done so much for me?
May the question ask you
To give of your best to Jesus

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring." Was the need so desperate that He had to use such an imperative? Let us not substitute the subjunctive m-a-y for Gods imperative

Dear Mabel:-

The Glory of Life is — to love - not to be loved,
to give - not to get,
to serve - not to be served.

"But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Phil. 4:19.

God shall all your need supply;
Ask not how, nor question why.
All you need, whate'er it be,
All the need you cannot see.
Need for grace to conquer sin,
Need for power the fight to win, ...
Need for patience every day,
Need for trust when dark the way,
Need for strength to bear each pain,
Need for cleansing from each stain,
Need for love to make life sweet,
Need for charity complete,
Need for pardon for each fall,
Need for mercy most of all,
Need for grace to live or die,
God shall all your need supply.

Lovingly your distant cousin, Ruth V. Eicher.

Dear Mabel:- The Risen Life Rom. 6:5.

The Risen Life is the fruit of the cross. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit" John 12:24.

There is but one path of blessedness which opens before us here. Abundent fruitfulness, the life which is life indeed, fellowship with Jesus Christ in service and fellowship with Him in Glory, are all attened by one identification in Christ's death.

The key to the wonderful life which is outlined here is: "Except it Die". Death is the gate of Life.

Dear Mable:

Whatsoere you find to do
Do it then with all your might Never be a little true or
A little in the right.
Trifels often lead to heaven,
Trifels make the life of man,
So in all things great or small,
Be as thorough as you can.

Remember the night of Jan. 6th
when I fell prostrate at your feet
I wonder if you perchance "You"
Shoved me???? Lillie.

God is love

Make me too brave to lie or be unkind
Make me too understanding too, to mind
The little hurts companions give and friends
The little careless hurts that no one quite intends
Make me too thoughtful to hurt others so
Help me to know the inmost hearts
Of those for whom I care.
To all upon my way, day after day
Let me be joy, be hope – let my life sing.
